Time	Title	Description
Friday, March 28th, 2025
3:30 p.m.	Why Every Christian Should Believe in Creation & the Flood	Homeschool Session: Mainstream scientists scoff at two of the earliest miracles recorded in the Bible: Creation and Noah's Flood. Does this attitude come from good science or something else? Dr. Thomas shows two plain observations that support these particular events and thus restore confidence in the Bible in general.
7:00 p.m.	Five Personal Discoveries that Confirm Creation	Where did we come from? Do questions about origins matter to the core doctrines of Christianity? Dr. Thomas tells of the science that led him to change his mind about evolution, where fossils came from, and about how Genesis history supports the Gospel.
Saturday, March 29th, 2025
10:00 a.m.	How Creatures Adapt
12:30 p.m.	Discovering Dinosaurs	Dr. Thomas presents five details about dinosaurs that he wishes he knew when he was young. They help solve the biggest dinosaur dilemmas and show why dinosaurs fit so well within biblical history.
Sunday, March 30th, 2025
9:30 a.m.	Sunday Worship: Living in Light of Genesis	Many Christians divorce science from faith because they're told that scientific and other evidence contradict what the Bible says about creation. Is Genesis really this wrong about our origins? How should Christians deal with claims that the first part of the Bible is myth and not fact? In this talk, Dr. Thomas reveals three ways that science actually confirms Genesis as history. Bible believers can have more confidence than ever in the truth of the Bible and find new freedom to live their lives in light of Genesis.
11:30 a.m.	Sunday School: Three Aspects of Colossians 1:16 that Elevate Christ as Creator	Every Christian should elevate his or her view of Christ as Creator because of the defensibility of three aspects of Jesus seen in this text. Dr. Thomas illustrates his Bible exposition with stories of discoveries that elevated his esteem for the Lord Jesus.
